(increases to $50 on 11/29/10)

Table of Ten: $400
(increases to $500 on 11/29/10)

Our guest speaker representing the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation is Dr. William Foege, former director of the Centers for Disease Control, personally appointed by President Carter to serve as the first director of the Carter Center, and personal advisor to Bill and Melinda Gates regarding Foundation direction and focus on global health concerns. While at the CDC, Dr. Foege played a vital role in the Eradication of Smallpox campaign and he is a Presidential Distinguished Professor of International Health at the Rollins School of Public Health at Emory University. Dr. Foege will recognize Rotary's impact on Polio eradication and other health issues.

Governor Ritter will recognize the heritage of 100 years of Rotary in our state, share reflections on serving as Governor, and present his annual State of the State address.
